GUEST DESIGNER

Hi! I’m Anabelle O’Malley! I live in Delaware with my husband and our six year old son, Ryan. I’ve been scrapping for the past five years and have loved every minute of it. It truly is my creative outlet. As a child I would spend hours drawing and making cards for people, so this is just a natural extension of my love for all things paper. Along with creating layouts, I still love card making and trying out new techniques. All of my creations contain many textures and details. I love all things vintage, shabby and soft.

When I’m not in my scrap room I can be found relaxing with my family, cooking, reading or hitting the gym. I hate housework, so occasionally I have to force myself to do that, too!

I have enjoyed meeting many fellow scrappers and card makers online. I gain so much inspiration by checking out my favorite galleries! I love Tattered Angels products and am thrilled to be the featured artist this month.
